AN ACT To provide for the compiling and publishing of the Official Register of the United States

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the United States Civil Service Commission shall cause to be compiled, edited, indexed, and published each year an Official Register of the United States, which shall contain a full and complete list of all persons occupying administrative and supervisory positions in the legislative, executive, and judicial branches of the Government, including the District of Columbia, in connection with which salaries are paid from the Treasury of the United States. The register shall show the name; official title; salary, compensation, and emoluments; legal residence and place of employment for each person listed therein: Provided, however, That the Official Register shall not contain the name of any postmaster or assistant postmaster, or any officer of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps, unless such officer is assigned as an administrative officer.

SEC. 2. To enable the United States Civil Service Commission to compile and publish the Official Register of the United States as early as practicable after the first of June of each year, the Executive Office, the legislative and judicial branches of the Government, the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, and the head of each executive department, independent office, establishment, and commission of the Government shall, as of the 1st day of May of each year, beginning with May 1, 1936, supply to the United States Civil Service Commission the data required by this Act, upon forms approved and furnished by the Commission, in due time to permit the publication of the Official Register as herein provided; and no extra compensation shall be allowed to any officer, clerk, or employee of the United States Civil Service Commission for compiling the Official Register.

SEC. 3. Of the Official Register there shall be printed, bound, and delivered to the Superintendent of Documents and charged to the Congressional allotment for printing and binding, a sufficient number of copies for distribution as follows: To the President of the United States, four copies, one copy of which shall be for the library of the Executive Office; to the Vice President of the United States, two copies; to each Senator, Representative, Delegate, and Resident Commissioner in Congress, three copies; to the Secretary and the Sergeant at Arms of the Senate and to the Clerk, the Sergeant at Arms, and the Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, each one copy; to the library of the Senate and the House, each, not to exceed fifteen copies; to the library of the Supreme Court, two copies; to the Library of Congress, for international exchange and for official use in Washington, District of Columbia, not to exceed one hundred and fifty copies; to the Municipal Library of the District of Columbia, two copies; and to the Commissioners of the District of Columbia, ten copies. The "usual number" shall not be printed.

SEC. 4. The head of each executive department, independent office, or establishment of the Government, not mentioned above, desiring copies of the Official Register shall issue, on or before May 1 of each year, a requisition upon the Public Printer for the number of copies of the Official Register necessary to meet its official requirements, the cost of such supply to be charged to the appropriations available for printing and binding for such executive department, independent office, or establishment.

SEC. 5. That section 510 of the Revised Statutes of the United States and section 2 of the Act discontinuing the printing of certain Government publications, and for other purposes (43 Stat. 1105), approved March 3, 1925, and all Acts or parts of Acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

COLUMBIA INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF

Columbia Institution for the Deaf is a corporation established in 1857 by private enterprise. It is now maintained by direct appropriations by Congress, by tuition fees, and by endowment. The act of Congress in 1857 incorporating the institution allowed $150 per annum from the United States Treasury for each indigent pupil from the District of Columbia. In 1858 Congress granted $3,000 a year for five years for salaries and incidental expenses of the institution, and authorized free admission of deaf and dumb or blind children of men in the military or naval service of the United States. In 1865 Congress provided for the transfer of the blind children and removed the words "and the blind" from the corporate name of the institution. In 1864 Congress authorized the institution to confer collegiate degrees. With this new departure Congress made a considerable increase in its annual grants and provided that a limited number of students be admitted to the collegiate department from the several States and Territories free of charge. The number of students thus admitted free was at first 10; the number has been increased by acts of Congress until now it is 145. In 1887 the college was opened to young women and in 1891 a department for the training of hearing teachers of the deaf was established.

UNITED STATES COUNCIL OF NATIONAL DEFENSE

The Council of National Defense, composed of the Secretary of War, the Secretary of the Navy, the Secretary of the Interior, the Secretary of Agriculture, the Secretary of Commerce, and the Secretary of Labor, was charged by the act of August 29, 1916, among other things, with the "coordination of industries and resources for the national security and welfare" and with the "creation of relations which will render possible in time of need the immediate concentration and utilization of the resources of the Nation." No appropriations have been made for nor any meetings held by the council since the fiscal year 1921. The records of the Council of National Defense, as well as those of the War Industries Board and the Committee on Public Information, are now under the jurisdiction of the Assistant Secretary of War, who is charged by law (act of June 4, 1920), with the "assurance of adequate provision for the mobilization of material and industrial organization essential to war-time needs." The records of the Council of National Defense are in the custody of the Archivist of the United States.

NATIONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR AERONAUTICS

The National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics was established by act of Congress approved March 3, 1915 (U. S. C., title 50, sec. 151), and the membership increased from 12 to 15 members by act approved March 2, 1929 (U. S. C., Supp. V, title 50, sec. 151 (a)). Its membership is appointed by the President and consists of two representatives each of the War and Navy Departments from the offices in charge of military and naval aeronautics, one representative each of the Smithsonian Institution, the United States Weather Bureau, and the United States National Bureau of Standards, together with eight additional persons (including a representative of the Bureau of Air Commerce) who are "acquainted with the needs of aeronautical science, either civil or military, or skilled in aeronautical engineering or its allied sciences." All the members, as such, serve without compensation. The law provides that this committee shall "supervise and direct the scientific study of the problems of flight, with a view to their practical solution, * * *" and also "direct and conduct research and experiment in aeronautics." Under the rules and regulations formulated by the committee and approved by the President, there are technical subcommittees organized along lines similar to the main committee and including specially appointed representatives of the War, Navy, and Commerce air organizations, with all members serving as such without compensation. The major subcommittees are those dealing with aerodynamics, power plants for aircraft, and materials for aircraft. The aeronautical research needs of the War, Navy, and Commerce Departments are referred to and coordinated by these subcommittees, and programs of fundamental research as agreed upon to meet the needs of all governmental agencies are executed under the centralized and direct control of the main committee at its research station, known as the Langley Memorial Aeronautical Laboratory, at Langley Field, Va. The committee also conducts in Washington the Office of Aeronautical Intelligence, for the collection, classification, and dissemination of scientific and technical data on aeronautics obtained from all parts of the world, and passes upon the merits of aeronautical inventions and designs submitted to any branch of the Government.

It works in close cooperation with the Pan American Union, the Health Authorities of the American republics and the International Sanitary bodies, and acts as a clearing house for sanitary information and as a central coordinating sanitary agency for the American republics. The Bureau publishes a monthly bulletin containing sections in Spanish, Portuguese, and French, and occasionally in English, as well as other publications in those languages, copies of which may be had on application.

The Pan American Union (formerly International Bureau of the American Republics) is the official international organization of all the republics of the Western Hemisphere, founded and maintained by them for the purpose of exchanging mutually useful information and fostering commerce, intercourse, friendship, and peace. It is supported through their joint contributions, each nation annually paying that part of the budget of expenses which its population bears to the total population of all the republics. Its general control is vested in a governing board made up of the representatives in Washington of all the Latin-American governments and the Secretary of State of the United States. It is strictly international in its scope, purpose, and control, and each nation has equal authority in its administration. The Pan American Union occupies and owns a monumental building on extensive grounds in Washington, D. C., overlooking the White House park.

[2] Chief of Staff: Entitled to rank and title of general; pay and allowances of a major general and to a money allowance of $2,200 per year. (Sec. 8, act June 10, 1922, 42 Stat. 629; U. S. [3] The maximum allowances which will accrue to an officer below the grade of brigadier general, to a brigadier general, or to a major general will be such that the total of base pay, pay for length of service, and allowances for subsistence and rental of quarters will not exceed $7,200, $7,500, and $9,700, respectively, per annum. Deduction of the necessary amount should be made from the rental allowance. (Secs. 7 and 8, act June 10, 1922; 42 Stat. 628, 629; U. S. C. 37: 11, 12; secs. 1487, 1488, M. L. 1929.)

NOTES.—Nothing in the act shall operate to reduce the pay of any officer on the active list below the pay he was entitled to receive by reason of his grade and length of service on June 30, 1922, exclusive of the temporary increase under the act of May 18, 1920. On and after July 1, 1922, he becomes entitled to the new allowances of the pay period in which he is placed by reason of his grade, length of service, and method of entry into the service. (See secs. 16 and 17, act June 10, 1922; 42 Stat. 632, and sec. 6, act May 31, 1924; 43 Stat. 252; U. S. C. 37: 25, 26; sec. 1515, M. L. 1929.)

Retired officers below the grade of brigadier general, and retired warrant officers and enlisted men shall, when on active duty, receive full pay and allowances. (See sec. 17, act June 10 1922; 42 Stat. 632, and act May 26, 1928; 45 Stat. 774; U. S. C. 37: 26; sec. 1513, M. L. 1929.)

Officers and enlisted men of the Army shall receive an increase of 50 per centum of their pay when by orders of competent authority they are required to participate regularly and frequently in aerial flights, and when in consequence of such orders they do participate in regular and frequent aerial flights as defined by such Executive orders as have heretofore been or may hereafter be promulgated by the President. Sec. 13a, act of June 3, 1916, as amended by sec. 13, act of June 4, 1920, and sec. 2, act of July 2, 1926 (44 Stat. 781; U. S. C. 10: 300; sec. 1415, M. L. 1929). The discharge and recommission of officers in the next lower grade shall not operate to reduce the pay or allowances which they are now receiving or to deprive them of credit for service now counted for purposes of pay or retirement. (See act Sept. 14, 1922, 42 Stat. 841; U. S. C. 10: 902; secs. 1374, 1375, 1399, M. L. 1929.)
